

Visualization Explanation

I created the visualizations by importing the mock csv files into Excel. There was one file for each data source. This was not ideal but necessary due to the complications of the actual data. I created pivot tables from the data to best match both my descriptive and diagnostic business questions. From the pivot tables, I created graphs that best visually displayed my data for easy readability and in such a way that supported my analysis and insights.